

Lodge Hill Residential visit 2026

Wednesday June 17th - Friday 19th June

- Beautiful, woodland site with lots to explore.
- Energetic three days with lots of activities.
- Safety and independence. Children able to spend free time in the surrounding area (buddy system).
- Fully catered accommodation
- Two-night stay in small-grouped rooms of 3-8 children

Activities

Activities are designed to encourage teamwork, supporting friends, encouragement, bravery, resilience and enjoyment!

Just a few of the activities we squeeze in:
Climbing wall, crate-stacking, archery, den-building, orienteering, low ropes, photography, art, team games.

Sleeping

- One main building with three floors
- At least 2 adults per floor
- Room sizes between 3 - 8 children
- Shower rooms and toilets on each floor
- Children can choose 3 friends and they will definitely be with at least one.

If you have any concerns about sleeping or eating speak to the team in plenty of time so that we can accommodate any specific needs and alter the costings accordingly.

Our aim is that all children attend as a year bonding experience and a special way to finish their time at Broadwater.

Please make sure your child has had a successful sleep over before they go to Lodge Hill.
